

Narrator 8: Sharks have been around longer than the dinosaur and over a lifetime can grow 30,000 teeth or more.

Narrator 9: Blue, great white, and hammerhead are dangerous to man, so if you see one, swim away just as fast as you can!

4. All About Sharks

by MICHAEL and JILL GALLINA

Mysteriously (♩ = ca. 120)
N.C.

VOICES.

7 mf 9

We're gon-na tell you all a-bout
We bet you did-n't know when they 10

sharks to-day, — yes, that's what we're gon-na do. — There's lose a tooth — an-oth-er one grows right back. —

13
great white, — ti-ger, and ham-mer-head, and don't for-get a-bout big blue! — Thir-ty thou-sand teeth — a shark can grow, yes, that's a real-ly well-known fact! —

16 17 Cm Cm⁷ Cm/E^b Dm⁷ G⁷sus G⁷
Some are on-ly sev-en inch-es long, and then Some sharks live for thir-ty years. Most are

19 Cm Cm⁷ Cm⁷/E^b G⁷ Cm Cm⁷ Cm⁷/E^b oth-ers mea-sure for-ty feet. — Man-y diff-'rent names, but their cold-blood-ed, yes, it's true. — They think plants and fish make a

Continuing the Tradition of Shawnee Press Excellence

Copyright © 2011 by HAL LEONARD CORPORATION

NOTE: The purchase of this book carries with it the right to photocopy this page.
Limited to one school only. NOT FOR RESALE.

22 Dm⁷ G⁷_{sus} N.C.

teeth are not the same, it all de - pends on what they eat! — Oh, the ver - y tas - ty dish, be sure that you're not tas - ty too! —

25 Cm G⁷/B E^b/B^b F/A Fm/A^b Cm/G

sharks are com - ing out to - night, — get out of the wa - ter and

28 D⁷(b⁹) G⁷ Cm G⁺/B E^b/B^b F/A stay out of sight. — The sharks are com - ing, watch your back, — don't want to get caught in a shark at - tack! shark at - tack! Don't want to get caught in a shark at - tack! Don't want to get caught in a

31 G⁷ G⁷/B 1. D⁷(b⁹) G⁷ Cm D.C. (pg. 23) 2. D⁷(b⁹) G⁷ Cm

34 G⁷ G⁷/B D⁷(b⁹) G⁷ Cm G⁷ G⁷/B

37 Cm/G G⁷ N.C. f 2

shark at - tack! —

